Has anyone had an issue with not being able to control the airflow for the hvac on a Captiva? I have a 2014, i think it's the actuator and I'm certain its different than most Chevy trucks I'm just not 100% how to troubleshoot to confirm what it is. A repair manual would be nice if anyone knows where to find one. 2013 Chevy Captiva 1 Answer. Car had had front in rebuilt . Will start and can even be driven but once u turn it off it won't turn rite back on. Also a click/pop noise has been heard when you try to turn it on a second time.
