The Columbine High School massacre was a school shooting and attempted bombing that occurred on April 20, 1999, at Columbine High School in Columbine, Colorado, United States. The perpetrators, twelfth grade students Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold, murdered 12 students and one teacher, all of which were killed by gunfire. Ten students were killed in the library, where the pair subsequently ...Elliot Aronson's primary research is in the area of social influence. Throughout his career he has sought to do experiments that would integrate his passion about basic science with his desire to apply those research findings toward improving the human condition (e.g., to reduce prejudice, deter bullying, and convince people to conserve energy and other natural resources). Professional development providers have ruined the jigsaw strategy. Our evidence is based on the number of times we have participated in a professional learning event in which the presenter says something akin to "we're about out of time, but I really wanted you to read this [article, website, or chapter], so we'll jigsaw it."
